All Saints Day Candlelight Memorial Mass Honoring Our Beloved Faithful Departed Thursday, November 1st at 6:30pm

You are invited to join us for a special candlelight Mass honoring our beloved faithful departed and to reserve a candle in memory of a loved one. A donation of $5.00 is requested for each candle but not required. Candles will be placed in the sanctuary prior to Mass, and each candle will have the name of your departed loved one printed on it. You can reserve more than one candle, and candles can be reserved for deceased parishioners and deceased non-parishioners, regardless of when they passed away.

The names of St. Jude Parishioners who passed from us during the previous year, however, will be read during the Mass and family members invited to come forward to light their candle. Please contact the Parish Office for more information.

September 15-16, 2018

Dear Friends:

This weekend I am very happy to celebrate with you a special Mass of Thanksgiving on the occasion of my 30th year of priesthood! My actual anniversary was on May 14. However, since May was such a busy month, and since we had 3 graduations in my family alone, I wanted to wait until after summer. It just so happens that my Mom and Dad's wedding anniversary falls on this Sunday. My Dad passed from us in November of 2001. My Mom and family will be with us for the 11:30am Mass. I am also very grateful for the presence of my good friend, Father Jamin David, pastor of St. Margaret Parish in Albany and St. Thomas Chapel in Springfield. Father Jamin will offer the homily at the Mass. Afterward, if you are able to join us, there will be a simple reception in the Parish Hall, just an opportunity for me to thank all of you for your constant support throughout these years. I want to offer a special thanks to Charmaine for coordinating the reception, and to Louis and Amy and our music ministry for the special music during Mass. It means so much for me to be here with all of you.

Have a great week!

Fr. Trey Nelson
Pastor
